

Witness Action Plan

“

To love God and neighbor is not something abstract, but profoundly concrete: it means seeing in every person the face of the Lord to be served, to serve him concretely. And you are, dear brothers and sisters, the face of Jesus.

Bridge from the Good Samaritan/Vulnerable Population Inventory and Reflection on Praying for their community

How will we live as witnesses to this good news?

We must choose how we will act upon returning to our particular communities, relationships, etc. What kind of person we become is shaped by what we love and how we order our lives around that love.

Reflection

Take a few minutes to reflect on the following questions:

- What have you learned about yourself? About others? About God?
- What has been challenging?
- What are you most grateful for?
- Other?

Developing Your Plan

What things are you are going to start doing?

What things are you going to keep doing?

What things are you going to stop doing?

Use the boxes below to sketch out some ideas/commitments you can make to live out your call to love God and neighbor. Consult the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy Resource Guide for ideas.

Be as specific as possible in your commitments. Consider the following questions as you think about the particulars of your commitments: What? Where? When?
